

United States District Court
Eastern District of California

Curtis J. Williams,

Plaintiff,

No. Civ. S-05-0164 DFL PAN P

vs.

Order Directing Service by the United States Marshal Without
Prepayment of Costs

R.W. Sandham, et al. /

Defendants.

- 909 -

Plaintiff is proceeding in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. The court previously ordered plaintiff to provide information for service of process on form USM-285, sufficient copies of the January 26, 2005, complaint for service, and a notice of compliance. Plaintiff has filed the required papers.

23 1. The Clerk of the Court is directed to forward the 24 instructions for service of process, the completed summons, and 25 copies of the January 26, 2005, complaint and of this order to 26 the United States Marshal;

1 2. Within ten days the United States Marshal shall notify 2 defendant P. Mangis of the commencement of this action and 3 request waiver of service of summons in accordance with the 4 provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d).

5 3. The United States Marshal shall retain the original
6 summons and a copy of the complaint in his file.

7 4. The United States Marshal shall file written waivers of 8 service of summons and any requests for waiver of service that 9 are returned undelivered as soon as they are received.

10 5. If a requested waiver of service of summons is not 11 returned by a defendant within 60 days from the day the request
12 was mailed, the United States Marshal shall:

13 a. Serve process and a copy of this order upon the 14 defendant pursuant to Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil 15 Procedure and 28 U.S.C. § 566(c) and shall command all necessary
16 assistance from the California Department of Corrections to 17 execute this order. The United States Marshal shall maintain the 18 privacy of all information provided in confidence by the 19 Department pursuant to this order.

20 b. Within ten days after service is made, file the return 21 of service for the defendant with evidence of any attempts to 22 secure a waiver of service of summons and of the costs
23 subsequently incurred in effecting service on said defendant.
24 Said costs shall be itemized on form USM-285 and shall include 25 costs incurred by the Marshal for photocopying the summons and 26 complaint and preparing any new forms USM-285. Costs of service

1 will be taxed against the defendant in accordance with Fed. R.
2 Civ. P. 4(d) (2).

3 6. Defendants shall reply to the complaint within the time
4 provided by Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(a).

5 7. Unless otherwise ordered, all motions to dismiss,
6 motions for summary judgment, motions concerning discovery,
7 motions pursuant to Rules 7, 11, 12, 15, 41, 55, 56, 59 and 60 of 8 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and motions pursuant to 9 Local Rule 11-110 shall be briefed pursuant to Local Rule
10 78-230(m). Failure timely to oppose a motion may be deemed 11 consent to the relief requested in the motion. Opposition to all 12 other motions need be filed only as specifically directed by the 13 court.

14 8. If plaintiff is released from prison during the pendency
15 of this action, any party may request application of other 16 provisions of Local Rule 78-230 but Local Rule 78-230(m) shall 17 apply until such a request is made and granted. See Local Rule 18 1-102(d).

19 9. Pursuant to Wyatt v. Terhune, 315 F.3d 1108, 1119-20 &
20 n. 14 (9th Cir. 2003), plaintiff is advised of the following 21 requirements for opposing a motion to dismiss for failure to 22 exhaust administrative remedies made by a defendant. Such a 23 motion is a request for dismissal of unexhausted claims without 24 prejudice. The defendant may submit evidence including 25 declarations under penalty of perjury and duly authenticated
26 documents to support the request. If plaintiff contends he did

1 exhaust administrative remedies available to him, plaintiff may 2 oppose defendant's motion and submit evidence, including his own 3 or others' competent declarations under penalty of perjury and 4 duly authenticated documents. If plaintiff does not serve and 5 file a written opposition to the motion, the court may consider 6 the failure as plaintiff's consent that the motion should be 7 granted. If the defendant's motion to dismiss is granted
8 plaintiff's unexhausted claims will be dismissed without 9 prejudice.

10 10. Pursuant to Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 957 (9th 11 Cir. 1998) (en banc), cert. denied, 527 U.S. 1035 (1999), and 12 Klingele v. Eikenberry, 849 F.2d 409 (9th Cir. 1988), plaintiff
13 is advised of the following requirements for opposing a motion
14 for summary judgment made by a defendant pursuant to Rule 56 of 15 the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Such a motion is a request 16 for an order for judgment in favor of the defendant without 17 trial. A defendant's motion for summary judgment will set forth 18 the facts affecting plaintiff's right to relief under the 19 applicable law that defendant contends are not reasonably subject
20 to dispute. To oppose a motion for summary judgment, plaintiff
21 must present evidence in support of his claims. To do this, 22 plaintiff may call the court's attention to statements within 23 plaintiff's knowledge made under the penalty of perjury in the 24 complaint, or submit his own or others' competent declarations 25 under penalty of perjury, duly authenticated documents, the 26 transcript of a deposition, answers to interrogatories, or

1 admissions obtained in this proceeding. If there is some good 2 reason why such evidence is not available to plaintiff when 3 required to oppose a motion for summary judgment, the court will 4 consider a request to postpone considering the defendant's 5 motion.

6 11. Unsigned affidavits or declarations will be stricken.

7 12. Each party shall promptly advise the court if they 8 change their address by serving and filing a document entitled 9 "Notice of Change of Address." Failure to inform the court of a 10 change of address may result in the imposition of sanctions
11 including dismissal of the action.

12 13. The Clerk of the Court shall serve upon plaintiff a 13 copy of the Local Rules of Court.

14 14. The failure of any party to comply with this order, the 15 Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, or the Local Rules of Court may 16 result in the imposition of sanctions including, but not limited
17 to, dismissal of the action or entry of default. Fed. R. Civ. P.
18 11; Local Rule 11-110.

19 So ordered.

20 Dated: February 7, 2006.
